Certificate of Animal Safety

Animal actors must be safe and treated humanely on every TV and film set.

Proudly presented to

_____ on _____, 20____

Remember!

- Look for the “No Animals Were Harmed”[®] end-credit in movies and television shows to ensure the well-being of animal actors.
- Animals are voiceless. They need people to speak on their behalf to ensure they are safe and well cared for.
- When it comes to safety, nothing is too good for our animal stars.

Kindness 100: American Humane Association is celebrating the 100th anniversary of Be Kind to Animals Week[®] in 2015 by focusing on the humane treatment of farm animals and animal actors, the importance of adopting pets from a shelter and including them in family disaster plans, and caring about the world’s endangered and disappearing creatures.
